La Follette, Milton Mayer, Pegler

THEIR'S THE FREE PRESS TODAY

In the issue of August 23, 1943, of THE PROGRESSIVE, published by the LaFollette family in Madison, Wisc., under the editorship of Moris H. Rubin, there is a letter by William Raoul of Navesink, N. J., to the editors, of which I quote the following:

Dear Sirs:

Milton Mayer, in your issue of Aug. 2, made a statement which impressed me. "There never was a war fought yet, that would have lasted a month if the real estate element had been removed."

That great truth should be stressed in every article about the war, or that alleged peace which is to come after.

But Milton Mayer said more than that. He added:

"If you think that the current war is not being fought over real estate, let me remind you, on one hand, that the people of Germany, Japan and Italy are all short of land, and, on the other hand, that Mr. Churchill has announced that 'we mean to keep what we have'."

POST OFFICE CENSORSHIP

In the issue of THE BROOM of June 29, 1942, commenting on the action of an American submarine which saved bars of gold from Corregidor but did not take American soldiers aboard to save them from Jap prisons, I wrote: "One will notice that this war is plainly fought for the same old stuff as every war in history; to save the gold of the international bankers for them and to save their investments in natural resources".

When Mayer says it in LaFollette's paper, the Post Office Solicitor does not stop The Progressive from being deposited in the mails. When de Aryan said it in The Broom, the Postal Solicitor found "precedent" under the "Sedition" statutes to delay mailing of The Broom last year until Ed Izac was safely re-elected to Congress and then our office was informed that The Broom was O. K.

Milton Mayer has said things about the Jews in the SAT. EVE. POST which caused a change in editorship and management in that weekly when Jewish advertisers and others, started to boycott, or threatened the POST with eventual boycott. But Mayer was not included among the 28 or so alleged "anti-Semites" whom the B'nai B'rith anti-Defamation League wants liquidated by charging them with "conspiracy to demoralize the armed forces in the city of Washington, D. C." because in no other way could those small publishers be stopped from printing and telling bitter truths and undeniable facts.

Westbrook Pegler is now to be liquidated by boycott and picketing, but never did the Postal Solicitors deny him the use of the mails for saying things by far more vitriolic about the Roosevelt dynasty and the commercializing of the White House to the highest bidder, than what I ever said in THE BROOM.

The Post Office, evidently is in politics. Those who have strong backers, like the LaFollette PROGRESSIVE and PEGLER, are free to speak their mind with impunity. Men, like myself, who dared protest that Jews had no right to force a boycott, by secondary boycott of those who refused to bow to their dictatorship in the U. S. A., against a Germany at peace with the U. S. A. as long as the President and Senate had not abrogated the treaty of peace and commerce with Germany; we are being called "seditionists, anti-Semites" because we dare expose this dictatorship of a racial minority who usurps the powers of the Senate and the president in time of peace to run the U. S. A. to suit their own schemes.

But there is one thing: The more dirt they do me, the surer they prove the truth of my expose. There is no more active source of anti-Semitism in these U. S. A. than the anti-Defamation's crowd duplication of Himmler methods in these times. "Racial bigotry stinks", said Judge Yankwich, and how!

Date Figures on your address line say when your subscription expires. I would appreciate your examining the date line today. I have more work to do than one man can handle and cannot get around at present to make personal calls on every subscriber or write a personal letter. Why don't you look at the expiration date on your address line and mail me the money? I have all I can do to regain my health and get ready for the next ordeal. The idea is to indict me again, in Washington, to keep me out of the coming presidential and congressional campaign where I might do a lot of damage to the New Dealers. If you get into the habit of renewing your subscription promptly, I'll be able to devote more energy to keep up the good fight.

Italian soldiers in Sicily are said to be surrendering with alacrity to the Allied forces. The reason is not cowardice but a natural desire to visit their relatives in America.

Couldn't Happen Here ?

YOUNG WOMAN KEPT LIFELONG PRISONER AS AN ORPHAN

This is an example of criminal bureaucracy right here in California. Ruby Lewis appeared through her attorneys in the court of Superior Judge Gordon Thompson on a writ of habeas corpus. He granted it.

This young woman was in jail because she was an orphan. When 2 years old her parents died. She was sent to a convent orphanage, Mission of San Jose, where she remained till she was 11. The San Francisco Juvenile Court then sent her to the Sonoma Home for feeble minded since nobody came forward to take care of the child. There she was held until the age of 32. Finally Ruby decided to get married and ran away.

She escaped, got married and came to San Diego. The police arrested her for a minor offense. She served her sentence and was released. But because they had taken her fingerprints, later on the report came from the Washington office that she had "escaped from a California institution". So the police arrested her for "escape".

Finally her attorneys freed her through the habeas corpus writ.

It is evident that this is a case of criminal negligence on the part of the bureaucrats at the Sonoma Home. She should have been examined when she became 21 and should have been released from the home of feeble minded since she is in possession of all her faculties.

C. LEON de ARYAN, Editor

Declared a legal newspaper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, in California, by Superior Court order, January 15, 1932.

Entered as second class matter March 27, 1931, at the postoffice of San Diego, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The Viereck Example

The Department of Justice has spent immense sums of money to "convict" George Sylvester Viereck. It did it twice. The Supreme Court reversed the first verdict and reprimanded both prosecution and court.

The general public is quite confused by it. The daily press is not making it clear what actually happened, so we have to do it.

Personally I hold no brief for Viereck. While I am supposed to have conspired with him in the City of Washington, D. C., since 1933 till July, 1942, "to demoralize the armed forces", I had not been in Washington, D. C. since 1919 and I had never met Viereck, or ever contacted him by mail or through intermediaries, till I was locked up with him in the D. C. jail in October, 1942. Viereck looks like a Jew and his best friends in jail were Jews. He is an agnostic and an opportunist par excellence. He was a disciple of Freud and wrote many books in that vein which I consider sensual and mental pornography. His collaborator was a Roumanian Jew on those books. Thus nobody could properly accuse him of anti-Semitism. He made his money by their philosophy and science, according to Freud who was quite a sensation in his heydays. I had to blush with shame that the American public had such low taste to buy that kind of sex rot and pay its authors a fortune.

Still, Viereck is connected up with some 30 alleged anti-Semites, the majority of whom don't make a secret of their aversion to Jewish domination. The worst that could be said of Viereck is that he was anti-British, but never anti-Semitic. Why, then, is the Jewish public given to understand that Viereck was against them even though he made a trip to the Nazi capital to plead for better treatment for Jews?

Viereck MUST be tarred as black as the new dealers can make him, otherwise they cannot smear the isolationist members of both houses of congress who opposed the new deal and the entry into the war before Pearl Harbor. And now watch and see how this is being done.

From a Washington press report: "Justice Bolitha J. Laws had instructed the jury of nine men and three women that Viereck had the right to carry on propaganda activities in behalf of his foreign employers,—even the German Reich —so long as he revealed required information to the state department."

Most people don't appreciate the meaning of these words, they are so significant, though, that it becomes a revelation.

The judge said that Viereck did nothing illegal for which he could be punished when he spread German propaganda before Pearl Harbor. All the propagandists did it, the British, the Communists, and are still doing it. Since Pearl Harbor, though, German, Italian and Japanese propaganda spreading becomes treason and sedition. A bunch of Americans, now domiciled in Germany and Italy, were recently indicted in absentia for doing that thing.

So, bear in mind, "Viereck," says the judge, "acted within his rights." Then what was wrong?

Nothing wrong SO LONG AS he revealed the required information to the state department. And there you have it. What is the "required" information?

I have read and re-read the statute. And I have read in the brief, which Viereck filed with the Supreme Court, the particulars required and how Viereck went to work and hired the best attorneys to tell him what was "required". He simply received another one of those new deal bureaucrats questionaires which a Philadelphia lawyer cannot puzzle out, hired the best available attorneys to fill it out for him, gave them all the information he had and they filled it out.

LATER ON congress changed the law, requiring additional information and this additional detailed information Viereck failed to give, PREVIOUS to the change in the law. Now he is charged with having violated a law when according to the best attorneys available, Viereck is supposed to have given the right answer, but the jury says he guessed, or better said, his attorneys guessed wrong.

Why, then, were those attorneys not indicted with him in "conspiracy", instead of jailing just Viereck?

But to jail the attorneys for making "wrong guesses" is like jailing a doctor for killing a patient in a "successful operation". It's unethical.

Now why is it a crime to do a LAWFUL thing? If Viereck did a lawful thing in his activities, where lies the crime? Oh, he did not tell the state department that he did a certain number of lawful things. He told them of some, but not the others.

And what were the ones he omitted?

The intent of the act of registering propagandists for foreign principals was to inform the state department of their identity so an eye could be kept on them. But if everything is well known to the state department where lies the damage? If something is hidden and put over, then there is a chance for damage to America.

One would think so, but not the Department of Justice who drew up the charges for the Grand Jury to find.

In those charges Viereck is charged with having HIDDEN something which WAS WELL KNOWN, which was GENERALLY KNOWN, for the very language of the charges says in fact, that it is known that the German Library of Information was a part of the Nazi propaganda machine and THEREFORE, says the indictment, Viereck should have REVEALED it to the state department.

Thus Viereck has been found "guilty" by a jury of nine men and three women for FAILING to reveal something which the indictment states, was perfectly well known to all intelligent people, in the state department, the moment he registered as an agent of the German Library of Information.

Suppose the new dealers pass a law that while it is perfectly legal to take a walk in the morning, you must report how far you went.

And you fill out the questionaire: "On Monday morning I walked a mile."

Suddenly you find yourself criminally indicted, because you did not state how many individual steps you took and how many feet and inches constitute one of your steps.

Thus the bureaucrats get you going and coming when they want to stick you. That is the hell of bureaucracy.

When it takes such hair splitting to send a man to jail, after the Supreme Court freed him once of the same offense, then we must ask what is behind it all?

The voters don't stop to analyze what Viereck was found "guilty" of. They figure he is a criminal even though the judge said that he had a perfect right to do all he did. Having thus become a criminal for doing lawful acts according to the best legal advice available, then the next step is to spread this taint to Senators Taft, Wheeler, Nye and all isolationists in both houses of congress so that at the next election the New Dealers may control both houses and perpetuate themselves in office. And to accomplish this, the small weekly press, and independent publishers must be terrorized so they don't dare open their mouths and campaign against the 4th term next year. Drag them all to Washington, D. C., charge them with conspiracy with Viereck, connect them up with the Senators and Congressmen who sent congressional speeches to them in bulk which they mailed out to keep the country out of war, and the 4th term election becomes a walkover.

This is the name of the four freedoms, everywhere in the world.

"Everything they did was legal", will be the epitaph, but they were jailed just the same. "Here lies the freedom of religion, press, speech and assembly, all four of them".

Hurrah, for the 4th term !

SAT. EVE. POST, of August 28, has an article by Ernest O. Houser, "Old Chiang" China's Strong Man. Having read it, it reminds me of the kind of articles former ambassador to Rome, Fletcher Childs, wrote about Mussolini. If you'd dig them up you'd see the point. Mussolini, there, was depicted to the gullible American reader as the idol and savior of Italy. Only few readers saw, what Pegler calls, the supergangster bum in Il Duce.

Who Are You ?

I had promised in my radio script to answer questions which deal with Life, before birth, here in the flesh, and after death.

The Key to it all is the Individual "I".

When I stated that in the heart of everyone of us is a tiny chamber where the Ego resides, the divine Atom who is You, is I, I was asked how I knew and who saw it.

The important thing is to find it for yourself. Testimony by others is hearsay and while it gives us the direction where to look, the individual discovery is the only satisfactory solution to the problem. What you find yourself, experience and know, nobody can take away from you.

If you are not seriously concerned to find for yourself it makes no difference what others found. And if you are seriously interested you make the acquaintance with your own Being, and that, then, gives you Liberty and Strenght.

The first and foremost aspiration of every Christian is to seek the Kingdom of God first and its Rightness. This Kingdom is within You. Therefore you must first seek to consciously be aware of the presence of the divine Atom in your heart

You can find it by making this experiment. Visualize it as a divine child, male or female, living in your heart, with all the attributes of divinity. It alone remembers the occasion when all of us covenanted to create this universe long before there was any. Yield to it your mind, soul and body. This yielding relaxes you completely. Such relaxation tends to let every organ, every cell in the body fall into its natural, its proper position. This is healing. And by yielding the mind too, all worries disappear. Then listen .

The divine Ego in us is the Christ. His second coming takes place every second that one completely gives up to Him (Her) to take possession of this mind, body and soul. Keep up this disciplinary exercise wherever you find yourself in a quandary or at a loss. If you genuinely give up all strain, worry and care and go limp mentally, emotionally and physically but love the thought of yielding to the Divine within, Light comes to you and one surprise after another follows. Breathe sweetly and deeply, without effort.

Should the Bible be Read in Public Schools ?

Dear Kosti:

Yours of the 15th received. Sorry that you are having such a hard time. Your experience with the radio station is most disgusting to any American. I hope that your Senator friend will do something about it.

I would fight for your right to express your childish nonsense about religion. I am just as serious in my religious views as you are in yours, yet I judge from your letter that you would deny me the right to express my convictions. If this is true then I can't see that you are much better than the outfit which is attempting to silence you.

In my opinion your superstition as well as that of the regular simple simon Christian Variety is a real menace.

Enclosed is a circular of mine just off the press. It expresses my views.

With very best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
FRANK C. HUGHES.

P. S. I can disagree with a person without getting mad at that person. I consider ridicule the best weapon to use against ridiculous bunk and it seems to work pretty well too.

* * * *

My dear Frank:

Your leaflet on Sunday School Lessons and Bible Study is very good and I'd appreciate getting a dozen of it.

You are confounding religion with the Bible, though, and for your muckraking purposes it fits in fine to so substitute the work of "inspired men".

But it gets you nowhere, no more than a text book on any "science" could be substituted for the truth in nature itself. The laws of chemistry remain true, even if some self-appointed apostle of chemistry or alchemy were to give his own notion of it at variance with the facts.

Your appeal where you are muckraking is quite wholesome, but when you fail to discern between muck and the pearls of truth in the slime, then you are intellectually lazy, stupid, dishonest and nothing more than an irresponsible muckraker. That's what the trouble is with most of you atheists and agnostics. You neither love, respect nor know the truth; you prefer muckraking and trampling of pearls in the dirt as an avocation.

Nevertheless, I hope that every intelligent person reads your tract on, "Should the Bible be read in Public Schools". They can get it by writing to you, Frank C. Hughes, Leamington Hotel, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Best regards,
KOSTI.

"Debt Will Have to be Written Off", Says Pegler

NEW YORK— But for big business and the devotion of its managers, the United States might be invaded by the Fascists of Germany, Italy and Japan today for the government, of which Wallace and so many others of like mind, have been a part for 10 years, had concerned itself with politics, the planned exploitation of want and the impairment of industry to the neglect of the nation's fighting powers.

Nor can it be said, when this marvelous production has killed Fascism in Europe, permitting the Communists to substitute their equivalent of Fascism in large areas, that American big business provoked the war as a means of selling its products and making profits.

These men knew there would be no profit for them or anyone else in this war and they lagged until war was upon us because Wallace's government had no plans for them and because they still remembered that their kind had been called merchants of death after the last one.

They realize now, however, that when this one is won some great change must occur in the United States because the debt will have to be written off one way or another and not handed on to new generations, and 10 million fighters will have to be absorbed back into domestic life and twice that many civilians relocated, fed and employed.

They wanted no such change in the United States for, defending the old order which had made the nation great enough to defeat armed and ruthless Fascism, they were called Fascists, themselves, as though initiative, ingenuity and ability and freedom of the individual from government controls constituted Fascism.

When the Shoe Fits

LODON—Another piece of evidence indicating how far the war has turned is that the German radio this week has begun a personal attack on Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Harris, chief of the R. A. F. bomber command. The Nazi radio is now building him up as an ogre who is murdering German people. Nothing could more clearly reveal how much the Allied bombing is hurting the Nazis.

Air war is terrifying and brutal. That is one of the best things about it. At last we have the means of making cities uninhabitable, spreading a blight over ports, industrial areas, air fields, and—yes, why not be frank about it? —population areas. I have seen many blocks rendered uninhabitable around port areas in Africa and Sicily. At last war is being made so horrible for the civilian population that perhaps its ultimate stupidity will become clear.

For too long war has been a plaything of ambitious men, for too long it has been a convenient means by which politicians and dictators have resolved unemployment and other economic troubles, stiffled opposition and grasped more power. For too long have such aggressive men been able to plunge other countries into unwanted wars—and of all the people who have a just complaint on this score Americans are the first.

Perhaps the mutual destructiveness of war as it is now being waged will goad the world to drive politicians and statesmen out of the historic habit of resorting to this insanity as the handiest panacea for their headaches.

IV THE LAWS OF "SEDITION"

Few, if any, of you jorors would be expected to know the laws of sedition (so-called), and if the court does not explain them, the counsel for the prosecution may attempt, wrongfully, to do so.

The word "SEDITION" is not found in our statutes, although it is in legal use in monarchial countries. "It has no place in a 'free speech' republic", says Prof. Zechariah Chafee, Jr., of the Harvard Law School.

Here its sole usage is in the field of "insurrection". We have a war-time statute, passed June 15, 1917, known as Section, 33 and 34 of Title 50, U. S. Code: and a peace-time statute, approved June 28, 1940, known as Sections 9, 10 and 11 of Title 18, U. S. Code.

The war-time statute, Sec. 33 of Title 50, reads:

"Whoever, when the United States is at war, shall willfully make or convey false reports or false statements with intent to interfere with the operation or success of the military or naval forces of the United States or to promote the success of its enemies, and whoever, when the United States is at war, shall willfully cause or attempt to cause insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny or refusal of duty, in the MILITARY OR NAVAL FORCES of the United States, or shall willfully obstruct the recruiting or enlistment service of the United States, TO THE INJURY OF THE SERVICE of the United States shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than twenty years or both."

Under this law, Section 33, you are restricted in your investigations to violations here in this district and since war began, December 7, 1941.

The language is plain. Civilian activities are NOT affected, except as they are directed toward the armed forces or to prevent enlistments.

(A) One crime is the circulation, (here in the District) of false reports, with the intent to injure the operation of the armed forces. (B) A second crime is to cause or attempt to cause insurrection or insubordination in the armed forces. (C) The third crime is to INJURE the United States war services by willfully obstructing the recruiting services.

Except for libels, there is no statute against publishing false reports in this country, except in so far as said reports are of such a character upon their face as would tend to cause desertion or rebellion in the army. Nothing in the above Section 33 is meant to apply to criticisms of the Administration, the Newdeal or any officeholders, no matter how violent or defamatory, as shown by the following facts:
